

Name:

Section:

Date:

Teacher:

IMPERATIVE SENTENCES

An imperative sentence gives an order, request or advice. It is used to ask people to do things or to give suggestions.

It is closed with a full stop (.)

Tick (✓) the imperative sentence and cross (✗) the other

Example:

Please accept my gift. [✓]

I want to give a gift. [✗]

1. Can you give this blue envelope? []

Send her this blue envelope. []

2. Will you clean your room? []

Clean your room immediately. []

KIDPID.COM

3. Write a letter to warden. []

I am writing a letter to warden. []

Name:

Section:

Date:

Teacher:

IMPERATIVE SENTENCES

An imperative sentence gives an order, request or advice. It is used to ask people to do things or to give suggestions. It is closed with a full stop (.)

Tick (✓) the imperative sentence and cross (✗) the other

1. He is about to choose his uniform. []

Choose your uniform immediately. []

2. The boys are talking more. []

Stop talking boys. []

3. Do you know the answer? []

Please raise your hand, if you know the answer. []

KIDPID.COM

4. Why don't you do your home work promptly? []

Do your homes work with our any delay. []

Name:

Section:

Date:

Teacher:

IMPERATIVE SENTENCES

An imperative sentence gives an order, request or advice. It is used to ask people to do things or to give suggestions.

It is closed with a full stop (.)

Tick (✓) the imperative sentence and cross (✗) the other

1. Syam, hand me your spectacles. []

Syam is handing over his spectacles. []

.....

2. John, Hurry up otherwise you will miss the train. []

John is going to miss the train. []

.....

3. How can you go home? []

Let me go home. []

.....

KIDPID.COM

4. Lend me your book please. []

She is ready to give me her book. []

Name:

Section:

Date:

Teacher:

IMPERATIVE SENTENCES

An imperative sentence gives an order, request or advice.
It is used to ask people to do things or to give suggestions.
It is closed with a full stop (.)

Match the following statements with relevant imperatives. The first one is done for you.

1. Attention children

leave that place immediately.

2. Dear Mary

don't make noise.

3. Siren is given

you should help them.

4. You are advised to

KIDPID.COM
please help me... help me...

5. I am drowning

bring that book to me.

6. They are poor

mind your own work.

Name:

Section:

Date:

Teacher:

IMPERATIVE SENTENCES

An imperative sentence gives an order, request or advice.
It is used to ask people to do things or to give suggestions.
It is closed with a full stop (.)

Match the following statements with relevant imperatives.

1. Today is Sunday

try again.

2. The teacher permitted
you stop smoking.

3. It is not good for health

come in please.

4. It is fine evening

KIDPID.COM
enjoy your holiday.

5. Animals are good

let's have a walk.

6. You can do it

be kind to them.